Mr. William Casey,
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
McLean, Virginia

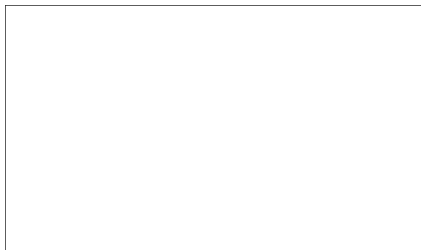

Dear Bill:

I understand the company occasionally buys, charters
or leases corporate-type aircraft.

We'd like to be considered for assignments where we can serve as "straw man", purchasing agent or technical adviser.

[redacted] has had family and professional contacts with the Agency. We know "top secret" means exactly that.
Even I'd be in the dark, except on a "need to know" basis.

I've attached a FACT SHEET that tells a bit about us.
I hope it turns out that we can be helpful.
